EARNINGS AND HOURS OF EMPLOYEES, OCTOBER 1976
(PRELIMINARY)

Main Features

- Estimated average weekly earnings of all adult employees (including part-time workers) in the last pay-period in October 1976 were $196.80 for males and $134.90 for females.
- Estimated average weekly earnings and hours for full-time non-managerial employees were as follows, (changes since October 1975 being shown in brackets):
 - Adult males $187.50 (+$23.10 or 14 per cent) for 40.6 hours (no change)
 - Junior males $100.50 (+$13.40 or 15 per cent) for 39.7 hours (+0.1)
 - Adult females $152.10 (+$21.80 or 17 per cent) for 38.1 hours (-0.3)
 - Junior females $96.80 (+$13.20 or 16 per cent) for 38.5 hours (-0.3)
- Average overtime earnings for full-time non-managerial adult males were $16.20 and average overtime hours were 2.4. Average ordinary time earnings and hours were $171.40 and 38.2.
- Average weekly earnings for full-time non-managerial adult males ranged from $254.30 in mining to $160.40 in retail trade, and from $222.40 in the Northern Territory to $178.60 in South Australia.

2. Average weekly earnings figures for males in this statement are not directly comparable with estimates of average weekly earnings per employed male unit published in the quarterly statement Reference No. 6.18, since they relate to only one pay-period in October, not to the average for a quarter, and their scope is less extensive. (See paragraph 3.)

Scope of survey

3. All wage and salary earners were represented except — members of the defence forces,

employees in agriculture,
employees in private households employing staff,
waterside workers employed on a casual basis, persons employed by private employers (other than hospitals) not subject to payroll tax.

At the time of the selection of the sample payroll tax was payable by employers in the States paying more than $800 a week in wages and salaries ($400 a week in the Territories). In general, Australian Government bodies, religious and benevolent institutions, public hospitals and other similar organisations are specifically exempted under the Australian and State Payroll Tax Acts.

Coverage

4. The survey covered all Australian and State Government departments and authorities and stratified random samples of local government authorities, non-government hospitals (not subject to payroll tax) and other private employers.

Industry classification

5. The industry classification used for the survey is the Australian Standard Industrial Classification (ASIC) described in Australian Standard Industrial Classification (Preliminary Edition) 1969, Vol. 1.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

Introduction

This statement contains a summary of the preliminary results of a survey of private and government employees conducted in respect of the last pay-period in October 1976. Some comparative figures are also shown for October 1975. Detailed results of the October 1976 Survey will be published as soon as possible in Earnings and Hours of Employees, October 1976 (Reference No. 6.40). In the meantime additional statistics will be available on request.

Definitions

6. Adult employees comprise employees 21 years of age and over and employees under 21 years of age who are paid at the adult rate for their occupation. Junior employees are all other employees under 21 years of age.

7. Full-time employees are employees who ordinarily work 30 hours or more a week, and part-time employees are those who ordinarily work less than 30 hours a week.

8. For private employees, non-managerial employees were defined to include minor supervisory employees, leading hands, clerical and office staff as well as ordinary wages employees. They exclude managerial, executive, professional and higher supervisory staff who for the private sector, were not further defined. For government employees, managerial, executive, professional and higher supervisory staff were generally defined as those employees who (i) were ineligible to receive payment for overtime, or (ii) although subject to payment for overtime, were in charge of a significant number of employees in a separate establishment (or establishments). The allocation of employees to these two classifications may have varied for individual private employers and between employers in the private and government sectors, with consequent effects on survey results.

9. Weekly earnings refers to gross earnings before taxation and other deductions have been made. It includes overtime earnings, which refer to that part of gross weekly earnings for hours paid for in excess of award, standard or agreed hours of work, and ordinary time earnings.

10. Weekly hours paid for refers to the hours for which payment was made. It includes overtime hours, which refers to hours in excess of award, standard or agreed hours of work, and ordinary time hours.

Reliability of estimates

11. As the survey was based on a sample of employers the resultant estimates are subject to sampling variability, that is, variations which might occur by chance because only a sample of employers was surveyed. The extent of the detail published has been determined after considering estimated measures of sampling variability.

NOTE. Estimates of average weekly earnings shown in the tables are rounded to the nearest 10 cents, and those of average weekly hours paid for are rounded to the first decimal place. Any discrepancies between totals and sums of components in tables are due to rounding.
